

The Environment Trust for Richmond Upon Thames Presents

A Celebration of the Working Life of the River Thames

Hosted by Bamber Gascoigne

With an exhibition of the work of River organisations, artists and photographers

at Christ's School, Queen's Road, Richmond TW10 6HW

25th March 2010 - 6.30 pm

Bamber Gascoigne, patron of the Environment Trust, will host a reception and introduce a series of presentations on the river's working heritage by Ken Dwan, former Master of the Company of Watermen and Lightermen
Mark Edwards, boatbuilder, of Richmond Bridge Boathouses
James Wisdom, Chair of Thames Explorer Trust and Brentford and Chiswick Local History Society

Students of Christ's School will show work in progress on the Heritage Lottery funded project 'Between the Locks', recording oral histories of river workers

Tickets for this unique event cost £15 and can be purchased by filling in the tear-off slip and sending with stamped addressed envelope to:

Hazel Bull, Environment Trust, 14 Queens Gardens, London, W5 1SF

For information call 020 8997 9804 or the Environment Trust office on 020 8891 5455 or email thames@environmenttrust.co.uk

Supported by

The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Please send me _____ tickets for A Celebration of the Working Life of the Thames

I enclose a SAE and my cheque for _____ made out to Environment Trust

Name _____ Telephone _____

e-mail address _____